

Creativity & Imagination (Level 1)
Assessment Questions

Retelling History

1. Choose the correct word:

_____ is the time where there is no light, and you can see the moon and stars.

- a) Night
- b) Afternoon
- c) Morning

2. Choose the correct word: _____ is part of our history

- a) Tomorrow
- b) Yesterday

3. What is the sixth month of the year?

4. What is the last month of the year?

5. Thursday comes after _____

6. Sunday comes before _____

7. How many days does January have?

8. I am very sleepy today because I slept very late last night. Which part of the sentence is the cause and effect?

Cause: _____

Effect: _____

9. Give 2 examples of numbers that add up to 19. Example: 7 + 12

10. Choose the correct verb: I (sleep, slept) for three hours yesterday.

11. Put the pictures below in the right order to create a story. Write or describe the story verbally:

Mimi and Bobby are playing in the snow. What happens afterwards? Put these pictures in the right order to create a logical story. Write 1, 2, 3, 4 in the small boxes.

12. Change the verb: She (play) basketball tomorrow.
13. Describe or draw the beginning of your story.

Host the World Cup

1. What is the FIFA World Cup
2. What is a stadium?
3. What is a pitch?
4. How many minutes are in a football game?
 - a. 60
 - b. 70
 - c. 90
5. If the football game starts at 1:00, when is half time?
6. Draw a stadium.
7. Explain the different parts of a stadium.
8. Why is it important to have a suitable stadium and pitch for a World Cup?
9. How can a stadium design affect the experience of the fans and players?
10. Why do countries want to host the World Cup?
11. Who is your favorite football player?

Body Art

1. What is the difference between 2D and 3D shapes?
2. Can you identify a basic 2D shape?
3. Can you identify a basic 3D shape?
4. Look at the picture of 2D and 3D shapes below and identify the shapes:

5. Can you draw a cube?
6. What are some examples of real-life objects that are 2D shapes?
7. Look around you, what shapes do you see? Are they 2D or 3D?

Act it Out

1. What is drama?
2. How's drama different from stories?
3. What are some of the key elements of a good story?
4. True or false: It's important to use descriptive language when telling a story or recounting an experience."
5. Match the story element to its definition:
 - a. Plot
 - i. the people or animals in the story.
 - ii. the time and place where the story take place.
 - iii. the sequence of events that make up the story.
 - b. Characters
 - c. Setting
6. True or false: In drama, characters can express their emotions through their actions and words.
7. What are the key elements of a good play?
8. Fill in the blank: When acting out a story, it's important to use _____ and facial expressions to show the emotions of the characters.
9. What are the 5 senses?
10. Match the emotion to its expression.

- Happy Crying, frowning
- Sad Yelling, clenched fists
- Angry Smiling, laughing

11. Match the dramatic element to its definition.

- Story The time and place where the drama take place
- Character The people or animals in the drama
- Setting The sequence of events that make up the drama

12. Communicate the following actions using body language only: eating a banana, sleeping, shouting, texting.

Robot Games

1. Observe the following code. Shorten the code by using the repeat or counting function.

Original code:

- Start
- Move forward
- Turn right
- Move forward
- Move forward
- Pick up toy
- Move forward
- Move forward
- Turn right
- Turn right
- Move forward
- End

2. Observe the picture given below. You must help the robot destroy the evil alien and save the world.

- a. Write a function called 'Destroy' in which the robot attacks the evil alien and wins.

- b. Write the code for the robot to reach the evil alien from its starting point and save the world. Use the function 'Destroy' in your code.

3. Write the code for a person to write a sentence in a notebook placed 4 steps away on a table.
4. How does writing code help us? Give examples of 2 places where coding is used.